"I am just back from the Sahara. I spent two months wan dering with a caravan of camels ovwhite expanse of sun warmer sand. The Sahara is like the beach at

Atlantic City, a flat immeusity of the whitest, cleanest sand, and the strangest thing I did in my wanderings was to eat desert grasshoppers. The Arab regard these grasshoppers as a luxury and I was tempted to try them, just as in Paris I have been tempted to try The grasshoppers were good. You plucked off the wings, the legs and the head, and then you ate th dried body. This morsel tasted precise ly like an English walnut. I ate grass-
